

PHOTO CONTEST 2024

On occasion of the 29th International Polar Conference to be held in Rauris (Austria), 16 – 20 September 2024, we call for a photo contest. For this, you may submit your best pictures from polar and ice-covered regions, from research, field campaigns and further activities.

Format: Photos should be provided in jpg, png, tiff or gif format (no animated gifs). The resolution should be 5000 x 3500 pixels (maximum), which corresponds to print format DIN A3 at 300 dpi.

Eligibility: Every registered conference participant can take part by submitting up to three original photos. You must be the author of every photograph you submit to the competition. Members of the review panel to select the best 10 photos to be exhibited at the conference cannot take part in the competition.

Deadline: The submission deadline is 30 June 2024.

Please submit your photo(s) by mailing them to the following email: foto2024@polarforschung.de. Please do not exceed a volume of 10 MB per email, otherwise you have to provide a link where we can download the photo(s). For every photo please provide a title and a very short description of the subject (maximum two sentences).

Copyright: By posting or providing a download link for your photo you agree with the copyright conditions according to Creative Commons license (CC-BY-NC 4.0⁽¹⁾).

If your photo is selected by the competition judges, you agree that it will be exhibited at the 29th International Polar Conference 2024 in Rauris and published on the website of the German Society for Polar Research. The photos will always be credited to the author.

Procedure: There is a two-stage selection process. In the first stage, a review panel will select 10 finalist photos. The panel consists of selected members of the German Society for Polar Research (DGP), APECS Germany and the organization team. In the second stage, the finalist photographs will be printed in format DIN A3 and exhibited during the conference. Each participant can vote for up to three of their favorite photos using a voting form you receive upon conference registration. The public voting takes place from Monday 8 am to Wednesday 5 pm. The winning photos will be awarded.

Award: 1st prize €150, 2nd prize €100, 3rd prize: €50
